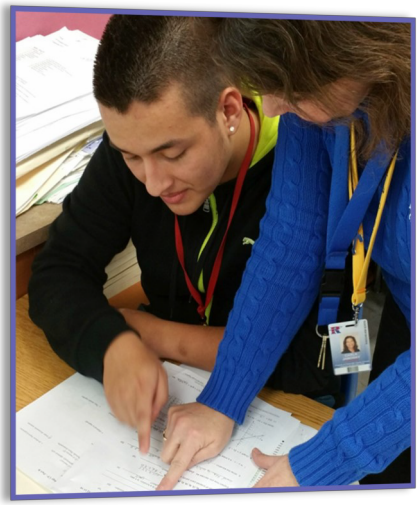
CLEMSON
College of EDUCATION

ESOL Add On Certification Courses (Online)



Registration

Clemson University College of Education offers the 5 courses required for the add-on certificate in Teaching English as a Second Language. Starting this summer, all courses are offered online. You must apply to CU as either a MED-LITR-E degree seeking student or a certificate seeking student before you can register for classes. The application is located at https://www.applyweb.com/clemsong/index.ftl

Course Schedule for 2021

Spring 2021	EDLT 8220: Principles and Strategies for Teaching English Speakers of Other Languages
Summer 2021	EDLT 8250: Cultural Diversity in Education
Summer 2021	EDLT 8230: Introduction to Linguistics
Summer 2021	EDLT 8140: Reading and Writing Instruction and Assessment for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students
Fall 2021	EDLT 8240: Practicum in the Instruction of ESOL Elementary and Secondary Learners

Completing Your ESOL Certificate

In addition to completing the required coursework, to be certified, teachers must also pass the PRAXIS exam and apply to the SC Department of Education. Please refer to the South Carolina Teacher Certification Manual for the most current certification requirements: https://ed.sc.gov/policy/federal-education-programs/esea-title-iii/esol-add-on-certification-requirements/.

APPLY NOW to begin this spring:
https://www.applyweb.com/clemsong/index.ftl

For more information about the Add-On Certificate Program in Teaching English as a Second Language, contact Rebecca Kaminski at krebecc@clemson.edu.

"Before starting this program, I was quite limited in understanding the challenges ELLs face and how to use strategies in my classroom that will help them learn. This program has allowed me to better understand language acquisition and has taught me strategies to utilize in my classroom."

-Christy Duncan, 5th grade teacher and student in the Clemson University MEd Literacy Education/ Emphasis ESOL Program