Charging an expense as a direct cost:

The cost must be allowable. It must conform to limitations or exclusions set forth in the sponsored agreement or in federal regulations.

The cost must be allocable. It must be assignable to the project in accordance with relative benefit to the project.

The cost must be reasonable. A cost is considered reasonable if it reflects the action that a prudent person would have taken and is necessary for the performance of the project.

A cost that is normally an indirect cost should not be charged as a direct cost. Contact your College Grant Administrator for more information.
