EARLY SUCCESS PROGRAM
Behavioral Contract
2016-2017
(To be completed by student at check in regardless of age)

I, ________________________________ (print name), have read and accept the policies of the Early Success Program on summer housing and accept full responsibility for my actions, and those of my guests, while taking part in the Early Success Program. I acknowledge and understand my responsibility as a member of the community in keeping myself and my peers safe, comfortable, and successful in our participation in the Early Success Program.

I understand and acknowledge that I am responsible for upholding Clemson University Housing policies and regulations.

- I, as a student, will not possess or consume alcohol or alcohol paraphernalia on campus. I understand that I am not of legal drinking age and that possession or consumption of alcohol will result in consequences including removal from the program and subsequently Clemson University if I violate this policy.
- I understand that marijuana and other drugs (including prescription drugs that are not prescribed to me by a doctor) will not be tolerated and possession or use of illegal substances will result in consequences including removal from the program and subsequently Clemson University if I violate this policy.
- I understand that I am not to possess weapons and explosives and acknowledge that my possession of them is strictly prohibited will result in consequences including removal from the program and subsequently Clemson University if I violate this policy.
- I understand that I will be held responsible for the actions of my guests and that they are held to these standards as well. I understand that my guest’s actions can result in removal from the program and subsequently Clemson University if they violate any policy.
- I understand that if my guests bring alcohol or drugs into Lever Hall, or on campus, that I am considered in possession of it as well and subject to the same consequences including removal from the program and subsequently Clemson University if I violate this policy.
- I understand that smoking cigarettes or e-cigarettes is not allowed in any residence hall and will utilize a designated outdoor space.

I understand and acknowledge that I am responsible for maintaining the condition of my assigned room and general community spaces.

- I understand that possession of candles or any other fire-hazardous material as outlined in Housing Summer Programs’ policies and procedures is strictly prohibited as it is a risk to not only my belongings and room, but the personal belongings of others in the building as well.
- I understand my responsibility for damages, replacements, or repairs. I agree to take every precaution to assure that communal areas including, but not limited to, baths, stairwells, elevators, lounges, kitchens) is not abused. I agree that I am responsible for reimbursing the University for any damage I cause to communal areas. In halls or areas where the University has determined that there is abuse or destruction of University property and the responsible individual(s) cannot be identified, all summer programs participants assigned to the building in which the common space is located may be held responsible for paying a prorated portion of repair and/or replacement costs.

- I understand that I am responsible for my key/key fob. Keys/key fobs are issued at check-in. Keys must be returned when occupancy is terminated. If a key is lost or not returned when occupancy is terminated, the lock will be re-cored and new keys will be made. The cost for these services is $75 per room key and $50 per building key fob lost and will be charged to the participant. All keys are property of the University and bear the statement “State of S.C., Do Not Duplicate.” Those violating this provision, or who possess keys other than the one assigned to them are subject to eviction from University housing.

_____ I understand that it is my responsibility to contribute to the larger residential community of Lever Hall throughout the summer and acknowledge my role in being a good neighbor.

- Common courtesy requires all participants to keep noise levels in all residential areas at a minimum 24 hours a day. Quiet hours are in effect from 11:00 p.m. until 7:00 a.m. each day.

- I understand that I am responsible for the conduct of guests and must be present for the duration of the visit. It is the responsibility of the host to make sure that the guests understand and abide by all Housing and ESP regulations. If a participant's guest is involved in any violations of policy, the hosting student, as well as the guest, may be subject to eviction from University Housing and subsequently the Early Success Program. Participants may be held responsible for violations of University or Housing violations that occur in their room.

- Members of the opposite sex are not allowed to stay overnight in the room or on the floors of members of the opposite sex. Guests of the opposite sex must leave the floor and/or building (if not a resident) by 12 p.m. Same sex guests may stay overnight if approved in advance by both roommates, the Community Assistant, and the Director of the Early Success Program. Overnight guests may not stay for more than two consecutive nights.

- Former ESP students are not permitted to be guests of current ESP students during the summer.

- Those who violate visitation regulations or state and/or municipal laws are subject to prosecution in civil courts, participant discipline proceedings, eviction from University housing, fines, and/or eviction from University Housing.
• The University and the Early Success Program reserves the rights to restrict, alter, or terminate visitation privileges where it is determined that these privileges are being abused or that they are not in the best interest of the program or University.
• I understand that ESP is not the only summer program residing in the residence hall and that I am to respect all other summer program students and staff and to represent ESP students and staff positively.

_____ I understand that live-in staff will confront situations in which there are policy violations and it is my responsibility to treat the staff with respect and will comply with any and all requests of staff.

• I acknowledge that CUPD may be called to a situation and if so, I may be called to a judicial hearing in Clemson’s Office of Community and Ethical Standards.
• I understand that Clemson University staff reserve the right to enter facilities under certain circumstances including bedrooms as deemed necessary.

I have read the above policies and agree to abide by them during my participation in the Early Success Program. I accept full responsibility for my actions, and those of my guests and understand the consequences associated with incompliance.
