Course Description - In consultation with and under the direction of a faculty member, students will pursue scholarly activities both individually and in teams.

Course Objectives
At the completion of this class the student will:

1. Implement their group’s plan as developed in PRTM 198/298. Implementation will include, but not be limited to, completion of the proposed project.
2. Apply PRTM concepts to the development and implementation of the CI project.
3. Develop critical thinking skills, learn to solve problems as a team and hone their communication and presentation skills.

Requirements
1. CI Group Project Implementation-Each CI group will be responsible for implementation of its program/project as appropriate. A timeline for completion will be developed at the beginning of the semester with appropriate check points set up for evaluation by the instructor of the course. Groups will be required to submit periodic progress reports, guidelines will be provided in class.
2. Class participation - You are expected to be actively engaged in all classes. Active engagement means participation in class discussions, asking meaningful questions, attending class and communicating with team members. Failure to maintain active class participation will have a detrimental effect on your final grade.

Attendance Policy
You are expected to be in class. Each unexcused absence will result in a 3 point reduction in your participation grade.

Grading scheme
CI Implementation 70 points
Participation/Attendance 30 points

Academic Integrity:
“As members of the Clemson University community, we have inherited Thomas Green Clemson’s vision of this institution as a ‘high seminary of learning’. Fundamental to this vision is a mutual commitment to truthfulness, honor, and responsibility, without which we cannot earn the trust and respect of others. Furthermore, we recognize that academic dishonesty detracts from the value of a Clemson degree. Therefore, we shall not tolerate lying, cheating, or stealing in any form.” For further information on the specific integrity policy upheld by Clemson University, please go to the following website: http://www.registrar.clemson.edu/html/refhndbk.htm#Academic%20Integrity.

Disability Access: It is University policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities. Students are, therefore, encouraged to contact Student Disability Services to discuss their individual needs for accommodation.

Schedule:
Our schedule is flexible and will be determined by the project needs and timetable. The design and implementation of your project must be completed by the end of the semester unless we negotiate an extension.
