The President’s Commission on the Status of Women is proud to continue the Thea McCrary Student Award for Outstanding Service. Named after the late Captain Thea McCrary, former chair of the Women’s Commission and winner of the Outstanding Woman Award for Staff, this award honors a female or male student who is engaged in public service or public education on matters critical to the lives of women and society in general.

Eligibility: Any student (male or female) who, during the previous academic year, has been engaged in community or public service may be nominated.

Deadline: All nominations must be turned in by Friday, February 26, 2016.

Award: The recipient of this award will be granted a stipend of $150, to be presented at the Outstanding Women Awards on Wednesday, March 9, 2016.

Nomination requirements: The application packet must include this form, one letter of nomination detailing the student’s service activities, and two letters of recommendation.

Contact information: For more information about the award or nominations, please contact Linda Tindal at (864) 656-1532 or ltindal@clemson.edu

NOMINEE NAME: ____________________________
Telephone: ____________________
E-mail address: ________________________________

NOMINATOR NAME: ____________________________
Telephone: ____________________
E-mail address: ________________________________

SUBMIT TO:
President’s Commission on the Status of Women
Clemson University
127 Hardin Hall
Clemson, SC 29634