

The South Carolina Review's 2009/2010 POETRY CONTEST & FUNDRAISER

$500 PRIZE FOR FIRST PLACE

Deadline: Entries must be postmarked by March 15, 2010.

One winning poem will be awarded $500, and two runners-up will receive $100 and $50, respectively. Winning poems and selected finalists will be published in the Fall 2010 issue. Entries must be original, unpublished, and not have won a monetary award in other contests.

Guidelines

Number and Page Restrictions: Send one copy of up to four poems (ten pages maximum). On a cover page, include name, address, phone number, and title(s) of your poem(s). All poems submitted for the contest must be anonymous. Include SASE.

Entry Fee: A $20 entry fee (checks payable to the Clemson University Foundation with "SCR Poetry Contest" on the memo-line) covers the cost of up to four poems (ten pages maximum). Moreover, if you would like to make a gift to assist the journal in these hard economic times, you may do so by adding $25, $50, $100 or more to the entry fee and specifying "Friends of SCR" on the memo-line of your check. Please indicate your choice and a current mailing as well as email address in your cover letter. Multiple entries will be allowed, provided that each contains a separate entry fee, cover letter, and SASE.

Submit entries to:

The South Carolina Review Poetry Contest
611 Strode Tower
Box 340522
Clemson University
Clemson, SC 29634-0522

Entries arriving by email or FAX will not be considered. Any entries not following the requirements listed above may be disqualified. Please direct any inquiries to SCR's editor, Dr. Wayne Chapman, at cwayne@clemson.edu