

Virginia Woolf: Art, Education, and Internationalism

Selected Papers from the Seventeenth Annual Conference on Virginia Woolf

ORDER FORM

Virginia Woolf: Art, Education, and Internationalism Selected Papers from the Seventeenth Annual Conference on Virginia Woolf, edited by Diana Royer and Madelyn Detloff (Clemson, SC: Clemson University Digital Press, 2008), pp. vi + 164. $19.95 paper, ISBN: 978-0-9796066-4-9

The Seventeenth Annual Conference on Virginia Woolf was hosted by Miami University on 7-10 June 2007. The focus honored Woolf's call "to understand and respect the roles of art, education, and internationalism in our lives." The volume features 22 essays, covering topics as diverse as Woolf's critique of fascism in The Waves to the current state of Woolf scholarship in China.

To order, send the form below to: The Director, Center for Electronic and Digital Publishing, Strode Tower, Box 340522, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 29634-0522.

VIRGINIA WOOLF ORDER FORM (Make checks payable to Clemson University)

Name: _____
 Address: _____

 Zip Code: _____
 Telephone: _____
 Email: _____

Quantity: _____ x $19.95 US
 Subtotal: _____
 Shipping: _____ $2/issue; $3/issue if overseas
 TOTAL: $ _____ U.S.