Special notes:

AAH 1020 and AAH 2100, Gen Ed requirements, can serve for dual use.

Courses that are required in your major cannot be used to meet requirements in the minor. (In Architecture cases, AAH 1020, and AAH 2040 / ARCH 2040 cannot be used for minor; In the case of Architecture majors who have significant design coursework which meets the course content of ART 1030 easily. It is recommended for these students to substitute an additional ART 2000 level course or the ART 1050 or ART 1060 Drawing courses for the ART 1030. A course substitution form will need to be filed.

Art Minors must register with the Department of Art in order to be given access to ART classes after the BFA majors have been satisfied. Class size and offerings are limited by facilities and faculty resources.

Send your name major and class rank to Greg Shelnutt, gshelnu@clemson.edu, Chair, Art Department for inclusion on the Minor list. You must put yourself on the waiting list for any course you choose to take.

NOTE #1: Nine credits at the 3000/4000 level are not required for a minor in Art, as approved by the University Undergraduate Curriculum Committee, 2010. [Email from Jeff Appling, Associate Dean of Undergraduate Studies, Tuesday, February 16, 2016 at 10:25 AM]
