ESTIMATED COST: Trip fee* – Summer 1: $1850, Summer 2: $550
*Trip fee includes all lodging, visa, required travel, sightseeing and weekend trip plus Airfare ($1800 in 2016) plus Tuition (6-12 cr. in-state + 10%)

COURSES OFFERED:
Summer 1: All students take CHIN499: Special Topics in Chinese Culture (in English) plus one course from CHIN102, CHIN398, or, possibly, from other disciplines of humanities.
Summer 2: six cr. from CHIN3160/4160 (internship possible), or CHIN3170/4170 (internship possible), or CHIN/ANTH4180/CHINxxxx
Summer 2 is only for students who participate in Summer 1

Reasons to go on this trip:

1. MAKE PROGRESS TOWARD YOUR DEGREE. Chin499 satisfies the GenEd Arts and Humanities Non-Literature requirement and the trip will satisfy your GenEd Cross-Cultural Awareness requirement.

2. TAKE TWO SESSIONS TO fulfill one semester of study abroad requirement and 130-hour internship requirement for Chinese L&IT and L&IH majors.

3. NO OUT-OF-STATE TUITION. All study abroad classes are charged at the in-state rate. This means out-of-state students can take classes in China for about the same price as taking them in Clemson.

4. GREAT SITES. Summer I is conducted in Beijing, the capital and political/cultural center of China. There you’ll have opportunity to visit world famous places, such as the Great Wall, Tiananmen Square, the Forbidden City, the Summer Palace, and Chinese National History Museum. Our host in Beijing is China Minzu (Ethnic Studies) University.

Summer II is conducted in DALIAN, CHINA’S SILICON VALLEY. Located near our hotel in Dalian are many high-tech global companies including Microsoft, GE, NEC, IBM, HP, Dell, Intel, Nokia, Ericsson, Matsushita, Sony, Toshiba, Panasonic, Siemens, Bearing Point, Accenture and SAP. Our host there is Dalian University of Technology.

5. MAKE NEW FRIENDS. Both China Minzu University and Dalian University of Technology are ranked top in China. There you will meet intelligent Chinese students, as well as other foreign students who come from all corners of the world.

6. LET US TALK TO YOUR PARENTS. We are willing to talk to your parents to assure them that you will be safe and properly supervised while on the trip.
