Clemson Language Intensive Course (CLIP):

Aachen, Germany

May 29–June 30, 2017

The CLIP program is a faculty led program taught each summer in Aachen, Germany. This course is intended as an opportunity for students who have been learning German to have an immersion experience in the language and experience Germany and its language and culture first hand.

Students will enroll in GER 3100: Summer Immersion Program. In addition to our faculty leaders, there will also be tours and cultural activities with local residents. This is a six credit hour course.

The prerequisite for this course is GER 2010 or higher completed by the beginning of the course. Participants who successfully complete this course will be prepared for all upper level German classes (3000&4000 level). The GER 3050/3060 requirement can be waived for most higher classes.

Program Fee: $4700.00 + airfare + personal spending

Fee includes:

- CU Tuition & Fees: summer study abroad tuition & fees for 6 credit hours.
- Housing and group meals. We will stay at a boarding house in Aachen.
- Tours and Excursions in Aachen, Cologne and other locations we will visit as a group. In addition, students will receive a weekly stipend from their program fees.
