

Declamation Clemson University Parking Instructions and Map

Please refer to the parking areas on the map below. You will not need a parking permit for Declamation 2009, but you must park in lot C-11 (Brooks Center parking lot) to avoid a citation. You are welcome to drop off your students near Daniel Hall to begin registration while you park. The roads to Daniel Hall and lot C-11 (from Highway 93) are marked in pink.
