Conde

16.1h 1997 Holsteiner gelding

Conde has been on the equestrian team longer than any of the riders. He was donated following a career in the hunter world. Conde loves to jump and his dependable nature and good looks make him the best draw at the show for riders of all levels.

(left, middle) Conde being ridden by CUET rider Cameron Hinson in the First Friday Parade. (above) Conde being ridden by CUET rider Sarah Griffin in a lesson.