Sierra is a Clemson born and bred. She has spent her whole life at the equine center and has done a little bit of everything. She has done everything from ranch horse work to jumping crossrails and CLEAT. She is super dependable and is often first on the trailer for any event.