Cane is one of those rare Thoroughbreds who does not want to go forward. He does an excellent job teaching our riders to never take their leg off. Cane is perhaps one of the cutest horses on the farm and can usually be found enjoying his turnout time in the sun.

(above) Cane being ridden in a lesson by CUET rider Courtney Schintzius. (left, middle) Cane being ridden in a lesson by CUET rider Mary Keefe.