Smokey is leased to the university by our western coach Rebecca Shirley. Smokey was one of the first horses used by the western equestrian team and is still a favorite mount. She is currently used for the hunt seat equestrian team and absolutely loves to jump!

(left, middle) Smokey being ridden by CUET rider Caroline Sox in a Clemson hosted IHSA show. (above) Smokey being ridden in a lesson by CUET rider Caitlin Mahan.