

Part I. Requirements

United States (U.S.) Universities are required by law to verify that students entering the U.S. with temporary student visas have adequate financial resources to meet the expenses of their program of study. Please complete this form and provide supporting financial documents in order to receive a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019) from Clemson University, which you will use to apply for your U.S. student visa. F-1 students are required to provide supporting financial documentation that covers, at minimum, the first academic year of study while J-1 students are required to provide proof of financial documentation that covers the complete academic program. As these amounts vary based off education level and tuition tier, please view the links in Part II for additional guidance.

- Financial Support Documentation Requirements:
  - o Dated within the last six months
  - o Statement must show the name of the account holder, date of the statement, and total amount of liquid (immediately available) funding
  - o Original statement in English or a translated, certified copy if statement is in another language
  - o Can come from any combination of sources, including personal, family, or sponsored funds
  - o Multiple sources of funding require documentation from each source along with separate copies of the second page of this form

Part II. Estimated Funding Needed Per Academic Year

Please note that the amounts listed below will be different from the actual totals needed to enroll at Clemson University for one academic year. These listed estimates will be the minimum required amounts to request a Certificate of Eligibility from Clemson University. Please view the Estimated Cost for Attendance page for a more accurate representation of an academic year at Clemson University.

- UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS and GRADUATE STUDENTS supported by a full assistantship: Please view the table below to determine the estimated funding required for Certificate of Eligibility issuance.
- GRADUATE STUDENTS not supported by a full assistantship: please review the Graduate School Calculator using the following instructions:
  1. Enter your specific program details into the Tuition Calculator
  2. Multiply the “Total Tuition & Fees per semester” by 2
  3. Enter the total into the table below to determine the minimum estimated amount required to request your Certificate of Eligibility

	UNDERGRADUATE	GRADUATE
		Full Assistantship	Full Tuition
