

Verification of Legal Presence

The State of South Carolina requires all students enrolling in a public, state-funded university to establish legal presence prior to enrolling in classes. To comply with this state law, all U.S. permanent residents and non-immigrant visa holders admitted to Clemson University must complete and submit this Verification of Legal Presence Form (VLP) and submit copies of the immigration documents below to is@clemson.edu.

- Permanent Residents: scanned copy of front and back of I-551 or “green card.”
- All other non-immigrant visa holders: scanned copy of biographical page of unexpired passport, I-797A Approval Notice, visa stamp in your passport (if applicable), and most recent I-94 Arrival/Departure record.
- Asylee/Parolee: scanned copy of biographical page of unexpired passport, most recent I-94 Arrival/Departure record, front and back of the Employment Authorization Document (EAD), and USCIS Asylum Approval notification.
- Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA): scanned copy of front and back of the Employment Authorization Document (EAD).
- TN/TD: scanned copy of biographical page of unexpired passport, most recent I-94 Arrival/Departure record, TN/TD stamp in passport (if applicable).
- Online/Distance Learning: Email is@clemson.edu to verify participation in online/distance learning program.
