Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity

On September 9, 2014, the Office of Community and Ethical Standards received information from Clemson University Housing and Dining indicating that new members of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity had been subjected to activities that may have endangered the safety and health of Clemson students. The activities included participation in activities that involved coerced underage drinking and hazing.

Alpha Sigma Phi was found in violation of the following regulations by the university disciplinary hearing board: Alcohol, Harm to Person, Hazing, University Facilities, and Student Organization Conduct. The fraternity received the following sanctions:

- Disciplinary Probation ending January 1, 2018
- Mandatory implementation of the Alpha Phase program
- Implement a plan to follow Alpha Sigma Phi’s national risk management program
- Conduct a full membership review led by the national fraternity
- Develop a comprehensive training program for all Interfraternity Council members on the issue of violence against women.

Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity

On September 16, 2014, the Office of Community and Ethical Standards received information from Clemson University Fraternity and Sorority Life indicating that Associate Members of Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity had been subjected to activities that may have endangered the safety and health of Clemson students. This included participation in activities that involved physical and mental hazing.

Phi Kappa Tau was found in violation of the following regulations by the university disciplinary hearing board: Harm to Person and Student Organization Conduct. The fraternity received the following sanctions:

- Implement an annual training on risk management expectations and procedures of Phi Kappa Tau for all initiated and new members.
- Provide intensive risk management training of all current members including hazing awareness and prevention during the spring 2015 semester.
- Develop a written plan for implementing FIPG and BYOB guidelines at social events.

Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity

On October 16 and 17, 2014, the Office of Community and Ethical Standards received information from Clemson University Fraternity and Sorority Life indicating that Associate Members of Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity had been subjected to activities that may have endangered the safety and health of Clemson students. This included participation in activities that involved physical and mental hazing.

Alpha Gamma Rho was found in violation of the following regulations by the university disciplinary hearing board: Student Organization Conduct. The fraternity received the following sanctions:
- Develop and implement a sustainable plan to regularly educate all new and continuing members on Clemson University’s Student Code of Conduct as well as the national risk management expectations, policies, and procedures of Alpha Gamma Rho.
- For the Spring and Fall semesters of 2015, the chapter must have a Clemson University staff member who is well-versed in Clemson University’s Student Code of Conduct lead an educational session and open discussion with Alpha Gamma Rho’s entire chapter within the first two weeks of membership of the new member classes.