Fundraiser Ideas

- Percentage Nights in DT Clemson: Winging It, Moe's, Chipotle, 356, Chickfila, Spill the Beans, Grouchos
- Late Night Food Sales: selling pancakes, grilled cheese, etc. in DT Clemson
- Merchandise sales: Selling koozies, water bottles, t-shirts (approved by Central Spirit), on library bridge
- Cold weather sales: hand out hot chocolate or coffee for donations when the weather gets cold
- Penny Wars: one container has Clemson football and the other has the opponent
- Work concessions at sporting events- Aramark Fundraiser
  - Requirements for Basketball Season:
    - Participate in a minimum of 3 games
    - Have 15 members per stand
  - Contact: Lisa James (clemsonNPO@aramark.com; 864-656-1169)
- Audition to perform at Tigerama and have a chance to win cash prizes (be on the lookout for announcements when auditions are being held)
- Collaborate with Dominos and sell coupon books and get a percentage of proceeds

Fundraising and Solicitation Guidelines: Can you sell merchandise on campus?

- Yes. You must complete a Sales and Solicitation Form which can be found in the Treasurer’s Toolbox on TigerQuest.
- You will need a cash/money collection plan and you must provide receipts to the purchasers for the purchases made.
- You will be responsible to collect, report, and pay sales tax as required by Clemson University.

If you have questions about fundraising and solicitation guidelines, please contact Julie Garcia, jgarcia@clemson.edu.

Helpful contact information:

Eric Sneeden- Associate Director for Student Organizations, esneede@clemson.edu
Susan Pope- Assistant Director for Student Organizations, sc@clemson.edu
Nick Lang- Graduate Assistant for Student Clubs and Organizations, nlang@clemson.edu
Julie Fleishman- Graduate Assistant for Student Clubs and Organizations, jfleish@clemson.edu