Political Science Minor

This checklist is intended as a convenient guide only. The authoritative source on curriculum requirements is Clemson University’s Undergraduate Announcements, as interpreted by the University administration.

Political Science Minor (18 hours):

1. Introductory Course (3 hours):

   PO SC 101 ___ or PO SC 102 ___ or PO SC 104 ___

2. Upper-Level Field Requirements (Complete three political science courses in three separate fields from the list below):

   American Government: 403___; 405___; 416___; 436___; 442___

   Comparative Politics: 371___; 372___; 466___; 471___; 476___; 477___; 478___

   International Politics: 361___; 362___; 363___; 375___; 429___

   Political Theory: 450___; 453___; 455___

   Public Policy/Public Administration: 302___; 321___; 421___; 423___; 424___; 427___; 430___

3. Additional Political Science Course Requirements (6 hours of political science courses at the 300/400 level)

   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________

---

1. Political Science minors must take at least one PO SC 400-level course (three credits) as part of their minor requirements.

2. Special Elective Courses. No more than a total of three credits from PO SC 305 (Creative Inquiry); 310 (Political Science Internship); 311 (Model United Nations); 312 (State Student Legislature); 382 (Spanish Language News); 383 (French Language News); 409 (Directed Study in American Politics); and 410 (Directed Study in International Politics) may be applied to the requirements for a Political Science minor.