Bill and Donna Eskridge Tri-ART Series

We can't wait to welcome you to a Tri-ART performance!

The Eskridge Tri-ART Series is the Brooks Center's educational outreach program for area students. Annually, the series presents interactive morning performances by world-renowned musicians, singers, theater companies and Clemson student ensembles. Students, ages 3-18, from public, private and homeschools in South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia experience both entertaining and inspiring presentations. The series is named for Tri-ART benefactors Bill and Donna Eskridge.

RESERVATIONS

The Brooks Center accepts reservations by MAIL OR EMAIL for all those attending Tri-ART by BUS starting May 15. We cannot accept reservations via phone or in person.

All those attending Tri-ART by CAR will place reservations ONLINE starting July 1. Tickets for each performance are held for car riders to ensure equal access to tickets.

If you have questions concerning reservations or seating availability, please contact Tri-ART Coordinator Nancy Martin at nmartin@clemson.edu or by phone at 864-656-7787 for more information.
