Experiencing Diversity and Inclusion at Clemson University
The Harvey and Lucinda Ganttt Multicultural Center is part of the Division of Inclusion and Equity and is committed to creating diverse learning environments that enhance the intercultural competence of our students. The center supports and advocates for the needs of all students, challenges students to think critically about themselves and their communities, provides engaging experiential learning opportunities and empowers students to be positive change agents.

Proposed First On-Campus Meeting

- Overview of Division of Inclusion and Equity
- Overview of Ganttt Center
- Diverse Student Panel
- Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) Assessment
- Campus Discovery Activity
- Volunteer at Grill and Greet

Commitment to the Ganttt Academy Program

- One academic year (two semesters) 2020-21
- Two on-campus meetings (one per semester)
  – Includes volunteering at two Ganttt Multicultural Center events
- Two videoconferences (one per semester)
- $1,963 per participant for one academic year participation
  – Funding is directed to the Ganttt Multicultural Center operations to support programming aligned with its mission

The purpose of the Ganttt Academy is to:

- Give Clemson University alumni and friends a glimpse into student life around diversity and inclusion in today’s climate
- Develop participants’ skillsets for greater intercultural capacity and advocacy
- Engage participants with current students and events

To sign up to participate in Ganttt Academy go to: bit.ly/GantttAcademy

Contact: L. Corrine Grant liza@clemson.edu
Director for Development and Alumni Relations