Welcome!

Thank you for pledging your time as a registration volunteer for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Clemson University. This handbook provides valuable information to assist you throughout your volunteer service.

The OLLI staff is appreciative of your time and efforts and hopes you enjoy your part in making OLLI at Clemson the best it can be!

Our Mission

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Clemson University is a membership organization whose mission is to provide opportunities for mature adults to further their knowledge in both academic and recreational pursuits and to share their experience and interests with other members. OLLI at Clemson University will be recognized for its innovative ability to support and enhance individual members' learning and meet their life experience needs and interests. OLLI will actively contribute to a healthy, well-rounded "One Clemson" community.

Important Things to Note

If there are questions that you CANNOT answer, please list the caller's name, telephone number, and their question. Tell them a member of the OLLI staff will contact them to answer their question.

Someone may call and ask about auditing a regular Clemson University course. This is South Carolina law. The policy is written below.

Senior Citizens

If you are South Carolina senior citizen, you may enroll in courses (unlimited hours), as an auditor or for credit, at no charge, subject to the following conditions:

You are 60 years of age or older

You are a South Carolina resident

You are not receiving compensation as a full-time employee

Enrollment is based on space availability

Inquire in The Registrar's Office at 102 Sikes Hall or call 864-656-2171

Membership Renewal Form Information

Please fill out all registrations in pencil. Writing in pencil will slow your hand down and make the spelling more legible. It is critical that all information is recorded correctly. Therefore, please repeat all phone numbers and credit card numbers back to the person while you have them on the phone.

Make sure to fill out the registration form completely.

Make sure to get the correct spelling of the person's name, address, and email address, asking them to spell it if necessary.

We accept MasterCard, Visa, Discover, and American Express credit cards over the phone.

If the caller wants to pay by check, please take their name and mailing address. They will be sent a membership registration form to complete and mail back.

You need to repeat all of the caller's information including their phone number, zip code, email address, credit card number, credit card security code, and credit card expiration date to them just to make sure it is correct.

Be sure to ask the caller the questions relating to Communications Options and mark their choices carefully.

Please review the sample registration form on page 6 of this handbook.
