WRITING SUPPORT THEORY AND PRACTICE

Course content will concentrate mainly on tutoring, teaching, and consulting practices—strategies and techniques to help you work with a wide range of students and clients to improve their writing. This is an essential skill in many professional careers!

As the semester progresses, we will consider a variety of topics within writing support praxis including "correctness," Englishes, inclusive practice, and responsive assessment.

The course's lab component will encourage course participants to learn through active observation and practice within the Clemson writing lab. Co-requisite: ENGL 4981/6981.
