Tillman Auditorium

Oral presentations will be held in Tillman Auditorium located in historic Tillman Hall. Built in 1893, Tillman Hall is Clemson University's signature building and one of the few remaining buildings from the university's original campus. Tillman Auditorium seats 755 people with full view of the stage. The layout of Tillman Auditorium is provided in Figure 1 and photos from the audience and presenter perspectives are shown in Figures 2 and 3, respectively.

Figure 1. Auditorium layout with approximate dimensions (not to exact scale).
Figure 2. View of the stage from the center seating section.

Figure 3. View of the center seating section from the stage.
Section 8.1 of the competition rules states that “the host school shall provide two (2) grounded power plugs, two (2) projection screens, and a computer projection unit for general use during the oral presentation.” “The individual school making a presentation shall furnish any additional equipment necessary.”

In compliance with this statement, the following will be available for your presentation:

- At least two grounded power plugs.
- One screen having dimensions of approximately 19’ wide by 12’ 6” tall will be provided for the presentations. If your team is using a single slide for your presentation, the image will occupy the entire screen. If your team is using two slides for your presentation, the projectors will be setup so two images will be projected side by side on this screen.
- One fixed LED projector unit for single slide presentations and one mobile projector for teams using two slides in their presentation. If you intend to use two slides, your team is responsible for furnishing the second projector. There will be a VGA connection for the projectors. If you choose to use your own laptop, please be sure to furnish any necessary VGA adapters.
- One PC laptop with Windows 7 and MS Office 2014. You are welcome to use this computer for your presentation if you wish, but it is not required. You may load your presentation from a USB drive if you desire.
- Two microphones and stands.
- One podium.
- One table.
- One event coordinator to provide technical assistance.

Teams will have the opportunity to preview Tillman Auditorium during final product judging in the afternoon on Saturday, June 20th. The specific time for the preview will be announced at the captains meeting on Friday, June 19th.