

Kyle Ames
Science Teaching – May 2011

A guy with a goal,
A goal to become a teacher,
A teacher of science.
But not a man without character.
Helping others,
Traveling the world,
Laughing.

Found in a plethora of places,
In front of a gaming console,
In front of the sky outside,
In front of a good book.
Amongst the Honors staff he is well known,
Participating in many activities:
Dixon Fellows,
Eureka!,
Ambassador.*

*I will end with this asterick,
because it will bring my limerick,
I hope you find us well,
You coming would be swell,
I know. this bio is epic.
