TO: South Carolina Cattlemen

FROM: Dr. Larry W. Olson - Ext. Animal Scientist & Bull Testing Program Coordinator

SUBJECT: 2009 Clemson Heifer Sale Nominations

The 2009 Clemson Heifer Sale sponsored by Clemson University and the South Carolina Cattlemen's Association will be held on February 7, 2009 at the Garrison Livestock Arena - Cattle Complex near Clemson following the 2009 Clemson Bull Test Sale. Enclosed are the requirements and nomination forms for South Carolina cattlemen to consign heifers to this sale. In order for consignors to make better plans on whether or not to consign heifers before their fall marketing, the nomination information is being sent out earlier and the deadline for nominations has been moved up to September 1st.

Only 19 pens of heifers will be accepted due to pen limitations. A nomination fee of $25 per head to partially cover sale expenses must accompany the completed nomination and herd health forms.

Heifers will be screened by an Extension Animal Scientist for quality, muscling, size, structural soundness, body condition and disposition.

Nominations Due - December 1, 2008
