Discover a “Best in Class” Education with the Online Clemson M.Ed.

The College of Education has produced award-winning teachers and leaders in South Carolina since its first teacher education classes offered in 1916. Now, our “Best in Class” quality can be shared nationally through our online Master of Education in Teaching and Learning. Designed for working professionals like you, the Clemson M.Ed. offers flexibility, specialized skills and practical knowledge to help you take the next step in your career.

What is the M.Ed. program?
The Clemson M.Ed. program is a 100% online graduate program for current K-12 educators. The rich, engaging curriculum will prepare you to advance your professional standing in just 18 months.

How do our M.Ed. students learn?
Our students engage in a rigorous curriculum at their own pace through state-of-the-art online learning. Students complete 18 hours of core coursework, as well as 12 hours in one of three specializations: STEAM, Early Childhood Education or Instructional Coaching.

What do M.Ed. graduates gain?
M.Ed. graduates earn a degree from a top 10 program while gaining the skills to increase their career options. Our students also benefit from the extensive Clemson network, which includes more than 144,000 alumni worldwide.

Benefits of Earning an M.Ed. in Teaching and Learning from Clemson
