

Making Peach Jam & Fruit Juice Jellies

This was another great workshop presented during the summer workshop series at the Marlboro County Extension Office. Under the watchful eye of County Extension Agent Debra Clowney-Parnell, participants canned 2 jars of Peach Jam and 2 jars of Fruit Juice Jelly. They were allowed to take one jar of each home and the other jars will be on display during the South Eastern Fair which will be held in Florence in October. When you attend the fair, be sure to check out this display. The participants prepared their own lunch or Chicken Quesadillas and Pepperoni 'n Cheese Crescents. Attending this workshop were Dawson Leviner, Jett Herndon, Christopher Hyatt, Gage Speight, Andrew Odom, Chandler Herndon, Morgan McManus, Isaiah Barksdale, Jordan Horne, Lydia Thomas, Jacob Parker, Tyler Knight, Taylor Parker, Naja Freeman, Chelsey Brumbles, Elizabeth Hyatt and Micaela McManus 4-H activities are open to all youth in the suggested age levels. .

