

Grow Your Own Shiitake Mushrooms Workshop

Join Clemson
Extension Agent
George Dickert for this how-to workshop on producing your own
gourmet Shiitake
mushrooms in your back yard.

Participants will learn about mushroom
culture from inoculation to harvest. In addition, there will be a hands-
on segment where each person will then get to prepare a log to take home and grow
their own gourmet
mushrooms!

Saturday, February 25, 2012, 10—1, at the F.E.N.C.E. Center---3381 Hunting Country Road, Tryon, NC. Cost: $30.00/person. Please make checks payable to Clemson University. Call 596-2993 to register or for further information. Space is limited!
