MEMORANDUM

To: South Carolina Cattlemen

From: Dr. Matthew Burns – Ext. Animal Scientist – Beef Specialist

Subject: 2014 Clemson Heifer Sale Nominations

The 2014 Clemson Heifer Sale sponsored by Clemson University and the South Carolina Cattlemen’s Association will be held on February 1, 2014 at the Garrison Livestock Arena - Cattle Complex near Clemson following the 2014 Clemson Bull Test Sale. Enclosed are the requirements and nomination forms for South Carolina cattlemen to consign heifers to this sale.

Only 19 pens of heifers will be accepted due to pen limitations. A nomination fee of $25 per head to partially cover sale expenses must accompany the completed nomination and herd health forms.

Heifers will be screened by an Extension Animal Scientist for quality, muscling, size, structural soundness, body condition and disposition.

Nominations Due - December 15, 2013
REQUIREMENTS

1. Only South Carolina cattle producers who are members of the South Carolina Cattlemen’s Association are eligible to consign heifers to the sale.
2. Producers may consign as many heifers as they would like in uniform groups of 3-5 heifers - based on size and color.
3. Maximum of 19 pens of heifers will be accepted.
6. Heifers must have a metal or EID permanent identification tag and be clearly identified by a visual ear tag. Supply both metal/EID and visual tags on nomination form.
7. Heifers must be OPEN.
8. Heifers must be polled or dehorned and healed when inspected in December.
