

CLEMSON
UNIVERSITY
School of Nursing

MASTER OF SCIENCE, MAJOR IN NURSING
Clinical Nurse Specialist, Nurse Practitioner,
Nursing Administration, or Nursing Education Options

Description:

- Nationally accredited program.
- Graduates are eligible for national certification examinations.
- All options provide a foundation for doctoral study in nursing.

Admission Requirements:

- Bachelor of Science in Nursing from nationally accredited program with GPA 3.0 or higher.
- Licensure to practice nursing in South Carolina.
- GRE scores within last 5 years – scores of 450 or higher on both the Verbal and Quantitative sections and 3.5 or higher on the Analytical Writing section are required.
- Two professional references- one from a former faculty member and one from someone familiar with your clinical skills (supervisor preferred).
- Prerequisites:
 - Undergraduate statistics course: All options.
 - Undergraduate computer course (or equivalent skills): All options.
 - Health assessment skills course: All options.
 - Undergraduate accounting course: Nursing Administration option.
- Current Resume (see details below).

Requirements Sent Directly to the Graduate School:

The following items/forms should be sent to the Graduate School Admissions Office, E106 Martin Hall, Clemson, SC 29643 or submitted electronically via <http://www.grad.clemson.edu>.

- Completed application (for consideration, submit by FEBRUARY 1st for fall; SEPTEMBER 1st for spring semester.) Spring semester may begin part time only.
- $65 application fee
- Official transcripts of all post-secondary school work
- Official results from the Graduate Record Exam (GRE)
- Two professional references

Requirements Sent Directly to the School of Nursing:

The following forms/items should be sent directly to the Clemson University School of Nursing's Graduate Program Office, University Center of Greenville, 225 S. Pleasantburg Drive, Suite B-5, Greenville, SC 29606-5616.

- Clinical practice Form - Documentation of recent clinical experience (contact Lynne McGuirt @ lgm@clemson.edu for a copy of this form)
- RN license number, renewal number and date
- Current resume

For more information, contact the Clemson School of Nursing Office, University Center of Greenville, 225 S. Pleasantburg Drive, Suite B-5, Greenville, SC 29606 or (864-250-8881).