Please answer the following questions completely. Please be specific as your response will weigh heavily in the decision as to who will be accepted.

1. Explain your interest in living in the Cultural Exchange Community and how you will contribute to the program.
2. Describe an enriching cross cultural experience that you have had while traveling, living, or studying in the U.S. or abroad.
3. List academic courses with an International component that you have taken or plan to enroll in.
4. Do you have vocational/career interests that you believe would be enhanced by your involvement in this program?
5. Tell us something unique about yourself that you would want the selection committee to know when making selection decisions.

I have read and understand the CEC community agreement.

I have visited the CEC website.
