

Clemson Conservation Center at the Warren Lasch Laboratories
Charleston, SC

Two (2) positions available

Rising Juniors or Seniors

Prefer students who have completed organic chemistry

GPA 2.5 or higher preferred, but consideration given to any candidates with proven ability for independent work

No citizenship limitations

Salary from minimum wage to $8.00 per hour, dependent upon experience

Low Country candidates preferred due to housing limitations

Start-End dates are negotiable

Clemson Conservation Center is involved with many projects involving archeological finds and conserving parts of history along with the research to develop processes to do so in the future. Current projects are H.L. Hunley and Magnolia Gardens are proving to be challenging and educational.

Submit resumes to Dr. Michael Drews, Director

dmichae@clemson.edu