

Happenings from the School of Materials Science and Engineering

FACULTY and STAFF AWARDS

- Prof. Bhuvanesh Goswami will receive an Honorary Doctorate from the Scientific Council at Univ. Mulhouse, France, in October
- Prof. Richard Asplund's paper, Comparison of Color Difference Equations for Textiles: CMC (2:1) and CIEDE2000, has been selected as the best paper published in the AATCC Review for 2004. He will receive the J.W. Weaver Paper of the Year Award this fall.
- Assoc. Prof. John Ballato has been selected as a member of the Liberty Fellowship Class of 2007. Liberty Corporation selects each year their top 20 emerging SC leaders, into this prestigious group.
- Asst. Prof. Phil Brown's work on 3DG fibers was featured on the cover of American Laboratory magazine, June 2005.
- Ms. Robbie Nicholson was elected to the President's Commission on the Status of Women at Clemson, where she will serve as Chair of the Compensation and Benefits Standing Committee.
- Asst. Prof. Jian Luo received an NSF CAREER award this spring, as well as the Ralph Powe Junior Faculty Enhancement Award from Oak Ridge National Laboratory.
- Richard Crenshaw, Stanley Justice and Paul Rowland received a Certificate of Appreciation, for their participation and contribution to the Lean Six Sigma Green Belt Qualification program at Omnova Solutions, Inc. and Dynea Canada, Ltd, in July.

STUDENT AWARDS

Ms. Joanna Isbill, UG, CME has received the Robert and Mary Buttle Memorial Scholarship, awarded by the SW section of the American Ceramic Society.

Ms. Clara Rivero, PhD Student (K. Richardson) will receive the Norbert Kreidl award of the Glass and Optical Materials Division meeting of the American Ceramic Society, to be held at this fall's PAC-RIM meeting in Maui, in September.