

Why settle for less off campus when you can have MORE on campus?

sophoMORE be MORE is the University's newest living and learning community designed specifically for sophomores. Housed in Calhoun Courts, the community offers you an opportunity to engage with faculty, develop career goals, participate in service-learning projects and take part in leadership activities.

less commuting MORE time

When you live in the sophoMORE be MORE community, your time is yours. You can get to class in minutes without having to fight for a parking space. And when you have time between classes, you can walk home for a snack or a study break.

less doubt MORE assurance

Living off campus can create many questions. What happens if my roommate and I don't get along? What do I do if I get sick? What if I just need some help? The campus community has all the answers. If you have an issue (whether it's a roommate issue, you're not feeling well or you just need someone to talk to), your help is just a short walk down the hall (to your RA) or a short walk across campus (to Redfern).

less secluded MORE involved

When you live on campus, you are more involved in student programs and leadership opportunities. These types of activities look good on a résumé and give you real-life experience that employers notice.

less work MORE convenience

Grocery shopping. Budgeting for rent and utilities. Paying bills. These are chores you can count on once you graduate, but why not put them off as long as you can? When you live in the sophoMORE be MORE community, all of your conveniences are on campus.

less restriction MORE independence

The sophoMORE be MORE community gives you an opportunity to be more independent. You can cook and eat on your own schedule and make more decisions when it comes to your space. And in the sophoMORE be MORE community, visitation is self-regulated.

less frustration MORE fun

Your friends are only a few steps away (not miles) when you live in the sophoMORE be MORE community. You can always find someone to order pizza and play video games, play Frisbee on Bowman or go to a football game. And there's always someone around when you need a study partner or a study break!

less uncertainty MORE guarantees

With all the additional worries living off campus creates, your grades shouldn't be the first thing to suffer. Being a successful Clemson student is why you're here. The sophoMORE be MORE community puts an end to worries like paying bills, collecting money from roommates and commuting to campus. You have more time to focus on what counts — being a successful student. And if you need some proof, look at the GPA comparison for the 2006-2007 academic year:

	GPA On Campus	GPA Off Campus
Freshman	3.02	2.75
Sophomore	3.12	2.85
Junior	3.11	3.01
Senior	3.18	3.10

less inconvenience MORE satisfaction

Signing up for the sophoMORE be MORE community is easy!

- It's all online. You can sign up anywhere you can log on to a computer!

- There's no deposit required up front! That's right — no security deposit, no advance payment, nothing, nada, zippo!
- There's no financial commitment on your part until after you receive your assignment! This means you'll know you're in the sophoMORE be MORE community before you're obligated to spend a dime.

You may request to live in the sophoMORE be MORE community beginning in March. Watch your email for details. Then, go online to the University Housing application and become part of the sophoMORE be MORE community.

Don't settle for less!

Living on campus has so many advantages. Sophomores now have an opportunity to live in a new community that offers all the campus conveniences plus additional services designed just for them. Make the sophoMORE be MORE community your new Clemson home.

University Housing
200 Mell Hall
Box 344075
Clemson, SC 29634-4075
(864) 656-2295
Fax: (864) 656-7615