

Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award (Non-Student category)

Nomination Form
Spring 2008

The Algernon Sydney Sullivan award is given "in recognition of the recipient's influence for good, excellence in maintaining high ideals of living, and genuine and disinterested service to others." Established by an agreement between Clemson University and the New York Southern Society, this award is named in honor of Algernon Sydney Sullivan, founder and first President of the New York Southern Society.

Selection Criteria

Recipient should have an interest in or be associated with Clemson University and live within the State of South Carolina. This award will be presented when the selection committee brings a qualified and approved candidate forward.

Nomination Procedures

Nominations should be made in the form of a letter and should be addressed to the Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Gail DiSabatino, who serves as chair of the Selection Committee. Letters of nomination should be no more than three pages in length and must provide evidence of the nominee's selfless commitment to meritorious service.

The nomination deadline is March 21, 2008.
