To Get Coursework Approved for Study Abroad:

1. Complete the "Request for Approval of Courses to be Taken Abroad" form (CWAF).
2. Have advisors on this list approve course equivalencies for courses taken abroad.

NOTE: Your academic advisor can only approve courses for general elective credit, not for a specific requirement (ex: SOC 2999, a Sociology elective, needs a signature from Dr. Holland).

Courses that have been pre-approved already are listed on Clemson’s TCEL.

3. If you receive financial aid, meet with the Financial Aid Office and provide them a copy of your CWAF.

Financial aid will not be released until the Financial Aid Office is aware of your study abroad.

4. Submit the CWAF to Clemson Abroad prior to departure.

NOTES:

Get approvals for more classes than you plan to take; sometimes cancellations happen.

If courses change from what you had approved, update your CWAF through the departments on this list in person or by email. Send your updated CWAF to abroad@clemson.edu to facilitate credit transfer.
