International Town & Gown Association

Join ITGA!

The College Town Resource Center

The International Town & Gown Association is a non-profit organization that brings together leaders from college and university campuses and communities. Member representatives include Mayors, Elected Officials, City Administrators, Police Chiefs, Planners, University/College Presidents, Business Officers, Student Affairs Officers, Campus Planners, Student Housing Staff, Off-campus student staff, Parking & Transportation Officials, Students, Neighborhood Officials, Private Housing Developers, and many others sharing a unified town-gown vision. The ITGA acts as a communication, education, consulting and training resource for decision makers of colleges and college communities in areas of shared resources, programs, planning and project opportunities while addressing existing and potential conflicts.

VISION STATEMENT

The International Town & Gown Association strives to become the primary information resource point for common issues between institutions of higher learning and the communities in which they reside. The ITGA will be the Global link bringing together practitioners from varying fields addressing immediate issues and future opportunities

MISSION STATEMENT

The ITGA provides a network of resources to assist civic leaders, university officials, faculty, neighborhood residents and students to collaborate on common services, programs, academic research and citizen issues, creating an improved quality of life for all residents, students, visitors, faculty and staff

VALUES

Facilitate, communicate, foster, assist, create, educate, design, lead, guide, promote, nurture and support.

Bringing College and Community Together Across the Globe
