Brief Statement of Change:

Change of pre-requisite. We've realized that this course should actually have the same pre-reqs as BioE 320, rather than BioE 320 itself. This also provides more flexibility in scheduling for some students.

Change of pre-req to replace solid mechanics (BioE 320) with fluid mechanics (BioE 321), remove BioE 370 and add "or consent of instructor-graduate only" to allow enrollment of graduate students lacking specific Clemson courses, but having equivalent training. BioE 320 was included to ensure some knowledge of mechanics before the creation of BioE 321. Now that 321 is available, fluid mechanics, has more specific relevance. BioE 370 is being removed since BioE 431 (Medical Imaging) was created last year-the same imaging content is still covered in the present course, but in less depth now that a specialized course is available.
