Youth Writing Camps

Presented by the Upstate Writing Project
Summer 2017
Youth Writing Camps

- Focused on developing the use of writing through various mediums including scripts, poetry, scientific inquiry, and game design.
- Promotes a love for reading and writing at this crucial developmental age when many students start to lose that love of literacy.
- Develop their writing fluency, creativity, and critical thinking skills!
Write into the Day

Write about your most embarrassing moment. What happened? Are you still embarrassed about it?
Writing Camp (Elementary)

June 12-16, 2017
from 9:00 AM - 3:30 PM
BUILD FRIENDSHIPS
Writing Camp (Secondary)

June 12-16, 2017 from 9:00 AM - 3:30 PM
A Day in the Life of a Camper:

- write into the day
- share writing
- novel writing
- focus on different types of writing (poetry, odes, journalism, fiction, nonfiction)
- blogging and responding to other campers’ blogs
More about camp:

- opportunities to work with published authors
- a day downtown to find inspiration for writing and present favorite pieces
- share and work with teachers who are a part of the Upstate Writing Project
- spend time with peers who love writing as much as you!
Students will have an opportunity to work with teachers from UWP. They will write together, share, and give each other feedback.
Lauren is a previous camper, who is here to share about her experience!

We will also get to hear a piece of writing she is particularly proud of!

Thanks, Lauren! :)

Lauren
