PROGRAM DETAILS

Dates: July 22nd - 28th, 2017

The South Carolina Commissioner’s School for Agriculture (SCCSA) provides challenging and enriching college-based experiences for a limited number of rising 11th and 12th grade students. Each college-based program provides an academically focused curriculum that integrates subject matter from a variety of related disciplines with the overall theme of agriculture and natural resources.

MISSION

SCCSA is a premiere career and leadership development summer program. This program is designed to inform, inspire and challenge student participants to consider a career in the agricultural, natural resource and life science industries as well as to be model citizens of leadership and influence for these industries as they embrace an agriculturalist philosophy.

Academic Programs May Include:
- Livestock & Animal Production
- Forestry & Natural Resources
- Plant Sciences

Additional Programming May Include:
- Agribusiness & Policy
- Agricultural Education
- Clemson Admissions & Financial Aid
ELIGIBILITY
No exceptions are made to these requirements

- Currently a high school student in 10th or 11th grade. Must be on track to enter 11th or 12th grade.
- Home-schooled students are eligible.
- Genuine interest in pursuing a college degree related to agriculture and natural resources.
- Must not have previously attended the South Carolina Commissioner’s School for Agriculture.
- Must submit a completed application form and all related materials by the deadlines.

TUITION COSTS
Tuition:

- South Carolina residents $375
- Out-of-State residents $650

A non-refundable tuition deposit of $50 is required UPON ACCEPTANCE. This deposit is credited toward total tuition costs. Please do not send money with this application.

Through private funding and donations, the cost to South Carolina students has been kept to a minimum. Each student must provide his or her own spending money as well as transportation to and from Clemson University. All program participants are housed on the Clemson campus and all meals are provided. In the event a student cannot afford these expenses; we encourage students to find local sponsors. Applicants can also submit a letter to the program director requesting funding assistance.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES
Postmark Deadline
Completed applications are due electronically or postmarked by March 31st, 2017 or earlier. The application must be completed and all components must be received, according to the enclosed directions. Applications can be submitted through email or through mail, but must be postmarked by March 31st, 2017, then received by our office no later than April 14th, 2017 at 4:00pm to be considered. Applications received with a postmark later than March 31st, 2017 will be immediately disqualified.

All components of application must be received by March 31st for an application to be complete. Please allow your recommenders ample time to complete requirements.

Submitting Application
The applicant should complete applications in entirety and the work submitted should be your own. Applications and related materials can be, emailed, or submitted online. Related addresses are listed under General Information.

Notification
A selection committee reviews applications and approximately 35-40 students will be chosen to participate with an emphasis placed on students who desire to pursue studies or a career in the agriculture and natural resource industries. Once the selection process is complete, the student can expect to receive a letter announcing the decision by June.

DISCLAIMER
The South Carolina Commissioner’s School for Agriculture is not responsible for lost, incomplete or delayed applications, or those sent to incorrect addresses. The committee cannot respond to requests for advance notification, individual assessments, or appeals.

Once submitted, the contents of this application become property of the SCCSA program and its affiliates. Submissions may be duplicated and replicated at the discretion of the SCCSA Program Director. Applicant gives permissions for multimedia submissions to be used in future advertising for the SCCSA program.

Application Deadline: March 31st
