Youth ages 5-19

Prepare, establish, maintain, and observe a small, fall food plot using provided seed for the purpose of food and cover establishment for game animals and other wildlife species. Complete and return a Project Record Book. Project plots can be hunted over, but must be protected from livestock. Seed provided by Wannamaker Wildlife.

Register by Friday, August 5
Plant by Tuesday, November 1
Return record books by Friday, January 20
Local Awards by beginning of February
Regional Awards by end of February
State Awards by mid-March
Awards sponsored by QDMA’s Advisory Council of SC and 4-H

Educating youth on proper techniques of food plot establishment to benefit game animals and other wildlife species.

$15 registration fee for current 4-H members
$25 registration fee for non-members

Contact your local Extension Agent for more information!
www.clemson.edu/extension/4h/project_areas/natural_resources/wildlife_food_plot/index.html