

Global Learning Institute
Office of Global Engagement
Faculty Global Learning Fellow
2021-2022

The Office of Global Engagement's Global Learning Institute invites faculty to apply for the 2021-2022 Faculty Global Learning Fellowship.

The Global Learning Institute is dedicated to the exploration and development of emerging trends in global engagement in higher education, and to prepare and to support Clemson faculty in the adoption of new and best practices.

The 2021-2022 Faculty Global Learning Fellow will join the Global Learning Institute in the advancement of International Virtual Exchange at Clemson through the facilitation of critical conversations and the strengthening of networks among IVE practitioners domestically and internationally.

Time Commitment:

18 August 2021 to 03 August 2022

Benefits:

1. 1 course release (3 cr.) or equivalent summer pay.
2. $1000 toward attendance at relevant annual event (e.g. conference, workshop).

Responsibilities:

1. Facilitate an event (e.g. meetings, conversations, retreat, etc.) among select CU faculty, staff, administrators and IVE practitioners to formulate an institutional definition for IVE and associated global learning outcomes for students.
2. Strengthen relationships with key international partners interested in working with Clemson on IVE projects.

Outputs:

1. A single-page recommendation to the Council on Global Engagement containing,
  - a. An institutional definition of IVE.
  - b. Standard global learning outcomes for IVE inclusive of a range of models (e.g. CI, general education courses, major courses, large lectures, seminars, etc.).
2. A virtual summit among key international partners engaged in IVE with Clemson.

Application Requirements:

One page, single-spaced (~500 words) document including,

1. Name, college, department, position.
2. Statement of global learning philosophy.
3. Experience with IVE.
4. Observations of IVE benefits for students' intercultural communication.

Please submit application to Kyle Anderson, Senior Director of Global Engagement: kdander@clemson.edu, by 10 May 2021.

Announcement of appointment will occur before 31 May 2021.
