Suspended 12/11/15 – 12/1/20

Suspension of Organizational Recognition is defined as the denial of privileges of a recognized organization for a designated period of time, which will be no less than one semester. Any organization whose recognition is suspended must:

- a. Cease all organizational activities.
- b. Vacate any appointed or elected office with that organization's governing body for the duration of the organization's period of suspension.
- c. Surrender balances of all organizational funds granted by Student Government.
- d. Vacate office or housing space assigned by the University. Space vacated due to suspension may be reassigned to other eligible University organizations.

In the case of housing, individual members will be reassigned provided space is available. There will be no University Housing contract cancellations.

The suspension of organizational recognition for Sigma Pi Fraternity will be in effect from December 2015 - December 2020. In order to be considered to begin the recolonization process in the spring of 2021 the organizational review process must be completed. The international office of Sigma Pi Fraternity may forward a letter of intent to the Office of the Dean of Students, no earlier than August 1, 2019, expressing interest in re-establishing the formerly suspended student organization. The letter should explain plans that assure appropriate guidance, support, advice, and supervision of the student organization. The letter must also provide documentation of completion of any requirements placed upon the student organization by the University through the student conduct process including the presentation of evidence that:

- e a full local advisory board for the Clemson Chapter has been appointed; and
- e current members of the local chapter (fall of 2015) are not serving in any advisory capacity to the chapter.

The first time that Sigma Pi will be eligible to accept new members will be following approval from the Suspended Student Organization Committee and the formal recruitment process of the interfraternity council in the spring of 2020.

The letter must also provide documentation of completion of any requirements placed upon the student organization by the University through the student conduct process including the presentation of evidence that:

- a full local advisory board for the South Carolina Beta Chapter has been appointed;
- men identified as having sent text messages requesting acts of personal servitude during the fall of 2014 are not serving in any advisory capacity to the chapter; and
- current members of the local chapter {initiated and new members during the fall of 2014) cannot be active participants in the recolonized chapter.
- The first time that Sigma Phi Epsilon will be eligible to accept new members will be following the formal recruitment process of the Interfraternity Council in the spring of 2020.

In terms of the chapter's on campus residential space, the current residents may remain in this space but will be considered unaffiliated student residents and are expected to follow all polices outlined in the Code of Conduct and their individual housing contracts. It will be the responsibility of Sigma Phi Epsilon to immediately:

- remove all chapter property from the chapter room, study room and designated storage cage;
- clean the chapter room in preparation for it to be locked for the remainder of the year; and
- inform non-resident members that their access to the residential space will be deactivated.

The students who will remain on the hall will have continued use of the hall's study room. Any vandalism or damage to the residential space will be forwarded to the Office of Community and Ethical Standards and responsible parties will be charged. If it is determined that collective, intentional damage is done, the future of Sigma Phi Epsilon's re-recognition may be jeopardized.

- Upon return, the local chapter must fully participate in all aspects of the Balanced Man Project.

Sanction(s):

- Suspension of Organizational Recognition is defined as the denial of privileges of a recognized organization for a designated period of time, which will be no less than one semester. Any organization whose recognition is suspended must:
  - Cease all organizational activities.
  - Vacate any appointed or elected office with that organization's governing body for the duration of the organization's period of suspension.
  - Surrender balances of all organizational funds granted by Student Government.
  - Vacate office or housing space assigned by the University. Space vacated due to suspension may be reassigned to other eligible University organizations. In the case of housing, individual members will be reassigned provided space is available. There will be no University Housing contract cancellations.

The suspension of organizational recognition for Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity will be in effect from January 2015 - December 2019. In order to be considered to begin the recolonization process in the spring of 2020, the organizational review process must be completed. The national office of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity may forward a letter of intent to the Office of the Dean of Campus Life, no earlier than August

1, 2019, expressing interest in re-establishing the formerly suspended student organization. The letter should explain plans that assure appropriate guidance, support, advice, and supervision of the student organization. The letter must also provide documentation of completion of any requirements placed upon the student organization by the University through the student conduct process including the presentation of evidence that:

- a) a full local advisory board for the South Carolina Beta Chapter has been appointed;
- b) men identified as having sent text messages requesting acts of personal servitude during the fall of 2014 are not serving in any advisory capacity to the chapter; and current members of the local chapter {initiated and new members during the fall of 2014) cannot be active participants in the recolonized chapter.
- c) The first time that Sigma Phi Epsilon will be eligible to accept new members will be following the formal recruitment process of the Interfraternity Council in the spring of 2020.

In terms of the chapter's on campus residential space, the current residents may remain in this space but will be considered unaffiliated student residents and are expected to follow all polices outlined in the Code of Conduct and their individual housing contracts. It will be the responsibility of Sigma Phi Epsilon to immediately:

- a) remove all chapter property from the chapter room, study room and designated storage cage;
- b) clean the chapter room in preparation for it to be locked for the remainder of the year; and
- c) inform non-resident members that their access to the residential space will be deactivated.

Academic Year 2014-15 (cont'd)

2014039801 Sigma Phi Epsilon (cont'd)

The students who will remain on the hall will have continued use of the hall's study room. Any vandalism or damage to the residential space will be forwarded to the Office of Community and Ethical Standards and responsible parties will be charged. If it is determined that collective, intentional damage is done, the future of Sigma Phi Epsilon's re-recognition may be jeopardized.

- Upon return, the local chapter must fully participate in all aspects of the Balanced Man Project.

2014031701 Phi Kappa Tau Incident Date: 9/16/14 Investigation Start Date: 9/23/14 Charge Date: 10/7/14 Date Resolved: 10/21/14

Sanctions:

- Annual Risk Management Training
It is required the chapter implement a sustainable plan to annually educate all members, including new members, on the risk management expectations and procedures of Phi Kappa Tau.
- Provide intensive risk management training of all current members including hazing awareness and prevention. This training will need to be completed prior to the formal recruitment process for Interfraternity Council Organizations for the Spring 2015 Semester. Phi Kappa Tau will submit a New Member/Associate Member Plan to be shared with all active members. Each active member must sign a document noting that they understand and agree to adhere to the plan. This plan must be submitted and approved by the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life before the formal recruitment process for Interfraternity Council organizations begins for the Spring 2015 Semester.
- Members will also need to demonstrate a high level of awareness and competency of policies and procedures as outlined by IFC and facilitated by Fraternity and Sorority Life. Additionally, Phi Kappa Tau will need to provide a written plan prior to being reinstated that will specifically outline protocol for social events in accordance with the FIPG risk management policies and the NIC BYOB guidelines. This includes check-in procedures, attendance list and ID checks which consist of ways to identify participants under the age of 21; how they secure multiple entry ways into events where alcohol is served; and how they plan to provide appropriate staffing to monitor events. This plan will need to be submitted to the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life by December 1, 2014

One hearing was held on 9/26 for all three cases involving Alpha Sigma Phi with the following sanctions:

Sanction(s)

- Suspension 9-10-14 through 9-10-15: Suspension of Organizational Recognition is defined as the denial of privileges of a recognized organization for a designated period of time, which will be no less than one semester. Any organization whose recognition is suspended must:
  - a. Cease all organizational activities.
  - b. Vacate any appointed or elected office with that organization's governing body for the duration of the organization's period of suspension.
  - c. Surrender balances of all organizational funds granted by Student Government.
  - d. Vacate office or housing space assigned by the University. Space vacated due to suspension may be reassigned to other eligible University organizations. In the case of housing, individual members will be reassigned provided space is available. There will be no University Housing contract cancellations.

RELATED SANCTION: The suspension of organizational recognition for Alpha Sigma Phi will be for one year which is equal to one calendar year from the date the chapter was placed on interim suspension. Therefore, no earlier than September 10, 2015, the national office of Alpha Sigma Phi may forward a letter of intent to the Office of the Dean of Students expressing interest in re-establishing the formerly suspended student organization. The letter should explain plans that assure appropriate guidance, support, advice, and supervision of the student organization. The letter must also provide documentation of completion of any requirements placed upon the student organization by the University through the student conduct process. The first time that Alpha Sigma Phi will be eligible to accept new members will be through the formal recruitment process of the Interfraternity Council in the spring of 2016.

In terms of the chapter's on campus residential space, the current residents may remain in this space but will be considered unaffiliated student residents and are expected to follow all polices outlined in the Code of Conduct and their individual housing contracts. It will be the responsibility of Alpha Sigma Phi to immediately:

- remove chapter property from the chapter room, study room and designated storage cage;
- clean the chapter room in preparation for it to be locked for the remainder of the academic year; and
- inform non-resident members that their access to the residential space will be deactivated.

The students who will remain on the hall will have continued use of the hall's study room. Any vandalism or damage to the residential space will be forwarded to the Office of Community and Ethical Standards and responsible parties will be charged. If it is determined that collective, intentional damage is done, the future of Alpha Sigma Phi's re-recognition may be jeopardized.

2014035001 Alpha Sigma Phi (cont'd)

Since the timing of this suspension will not end until after the beginning of a new housing contract period, Alpha Sigma Phi is effectively removed from Fraternity and Sorority Housing and will have to apply for space through a future application process.

- Disciplinary Probation is defined as a specified period of review, observation and/or restrictions during which a student organization is under official warning that its misconduct was very serious. Subsequent violations of University rules, regulations, or policies could result in more severe sanctions, including suspension or dismissal of recognition. During the probationary period, a student organization is deemed "not in good standing" with the University and may be subject to specific limitations upon its behavior or University privileges. Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity will remain on disciplinary probation for two calendar years after the chapter's recognition is reinstated.
- Mandatory Alpha Phase Implementation: Upon return to active, recognized status at Clemson University, the chapter must participate as a fully implemented Alpha Phase chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.
- Annual Risk Management
It is required the chapter implement a sustainable plan to annually educate all members, including new members, on the risk management expectations, policies and procedures of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Disciplinary Probation through May 11, 2016

New Membership Pledge Programs: Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity must present a detailed outline of plans regarding the new member pledge program for the Fall 2014 semester to the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life (F&SL) and the Office of Community and Ethical Standards (OCES). The outline must include plans to recruit men that possess and will uphold the qualities and standards set forth by the National Headquarters of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. The proposed plan should ensure that all traditions that have the potential to endanger the safety and health of members and/or potential members are eliminated. The outline is due by July 1, 2014.

In-Kind Restitution: Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity will work with Fraternity and Sorority Life to coordinate and host a workshop on "Hazing and Other Inappropriate Activities during Pledge Season" so that there is a clear understanding of what constitutes a safe and productive new membership recruitment process. All members of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity must attend. The workshop should be held prior to the start of Fall 2014 rush activities. In addition, the chapter must co-sponsor an Anti-Hazing Summit with Fraternity and Sorority Life to be facilitated by Kim Novak, Director of Risk Education and Prevention for Pi Kappa Alpha in Fall 2014. This summit will be for all fraternity and sorority officers, advisors, and headquarters staff. Contact Gary Wiser at (864) 656-4928 by May 2, 2014 to schedule an appointment to start the planning of the workshop and Anti-Hazing Summit.

Restriction of Privileges: Restrictions placed upon a student organization which limits University privileges for a specified period of time. These limitations include the following: Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity will be allowed to host only two social functions that must be approved by Fraternity and Sorority Life for the Fall 2014 semester. The social functions will need to be approved one week prior to the actual date of the event. Failure to get advanced approval may result in you not being able to have the social function. Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity will not be allowed to sponsor nor co-sponsor any other social events for the Fall 2014 semester except for the two social functions outlined above. Philanthropy/service events and tailgates during home football games do not fall under this restriction and are still allowed to occur.

New Member Education Program: Mandated revision of chapter bylaws concerning new member education and expectations for new members. In order to ensure a proper new member education process occurs, the chapter will be required to:

- Institute the fraternity's recommended eight week new member program.
- Revise the current Eta Psi new member program through the implementation of the Fraternity's online New Member Education System
- Submit the revised new member program to the Grand Praetor, the designated Headquarters' Staff member, and Dr. Gary Wiser, Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life, for approval before any new member activities occur.
- Besides the events included in the approved program, no new member events can occur.

Staff Visits: For the 2014 fall semester, the International Fraternity Headquarters will dedicate a member of the Chapter Support Team to visit and consult with the Eta Psi chapter twice throughout the semester. The staff will work with the chapter to establish proper chapter operations with the remaining undergraduate members of the chapter. Other staff visits may be deemed necessary by the Membership Review Committee, and those will become required.

Educational Programing:

- The chapter will be required to host an anti-hazing speaker open to the entire Clemson Fraternity and Sorority Life community. This should be coordinated closely with Dr. Gary Wiser, Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life. You will need to contact Dr. Wiser by May 19, 2014 to schedule a meeting to discuss the program.
- Sigma Chi Fraternity will develop a plan for bystander intervention and/or referral for brothers of concern and a plan for environmental strategies showing evidence that the Sigma Chi Fraternity house, its chapter meetings/events are physically and visually indicative of the values of Sigma Chi Fraternity. The plan is due to the Office of Community and Ethical Standards and Fraternity and Sorority Life by August 10, 2014.

Establishment and related tasks of an Internal Review Board. An internal review Board will be developed and will meet every other week with approximately 8-10 members that will report directly to administration within Clemson's Student Affairs with the chairs being a member of the Dean of Campus Life's office paired with the President of Sigma Chi Fraternity. Suggestions for this group include: Student Affairs Organization administration, F/S Life, Sigma Chi National office, Grad students that work with this chapter, and non-fraternity or sorority life members. The group will meet bi-weekly until at such time, as the board's chairs determines that face to face meetings are no longer necessary. The Internal Review Board will oversee all sanctions listed above.

Action Plan for Organization Moving forward:

- No longer hold organizational events at the Ski Lodge for the Spring 2013 semester.
- For future homecoming float builds, have a sign-in sheet for the float build to document who was present and the time and day.
- Provide educational opportunities for members related to proper and appropriate Student Organizational conduct.
- Include Alcohol and Drug education as part of the New Member education program and handbook.
- Have Executive Board members participate in a leadership retreat in Spring 2013
- Remove associate members (pledges) involved and found in violation of general student regulations in this incident in Fall 2012.
