Describe a time when you and a peer experienced conflict in a professional setting. How did you overcome it?

How do you motivate team members?

How do you define an awesome manager?

What class projects or assignments best prepared you for this position?

1. What are the some skills you have learned that you would utilize in this position?
2. How would you manage a new product launch?
3. What do you think of our current social media presence? What would you improve?
4. Could you talk about an insight or trend that you see happening in our industry?

How do you incorporate feedback into your designs?

Walk me through your portfolio. Which pieces are you most proud of, and why?

Let's say someone tells you to design something without any context. What do you do?

1. How do you manage high stress situations?
2. What are the biggest challenges that finance professionals face today?
3. How do you calculate the WACC?
4. What, in your opinion, makes a good financial model?

How do you work with collaborators like copywriters, developers, and project managers?

What qualities make a good accountant?

How do you plan a large project to ensure that it is completed by the due date?

How do you keep up with ethical and legal regulations in the industry?

Tell me about a time when you used your accounting skills in your academic career.

1. Which global trends will shape the world economy in the next five years? 10 years?
2. Can you explain the difference between causation and correlation?
3. How would you ensure that you effectively communicate economic data to your audience?
4. How would you go about solving a problem?

What are the some skills you have learned that you would utilize in this position?

How would you manage a new product launch?

How do you keep up with ethical and legal regulations in the industry?

Tell me about a time when you used your accounting skills in your academic career.

How do you work with collaborators like copywriters, developers, and project managers?

How do you incorporate feedback into your designs?

Walk me through your portfolio. Which pieces are you most proud of, and why?

Let's say someone tells you to design something without any context. What do you do?