Graphic Communications majors need to plan ahead if they would like to study abroad during their degree program. Below are courses to consider reserving in order to maximize your study abroad opportunities. All Graphic Communications core courses are non-transferable. Study abroad is also a great opportunity to fulfill your general education credits. Be sure to meet with your academic advisor to discuss course transfer equivalency and your degree progress.

Courses that fulfill degree requirements while studying abroad:

Cross Cultural Awareness Requirement (3 credit hours)
IS 2100, AAH 1020, ART 2100, COMM 1800, HUM 3090, POSC 1020, REL 1020

Principles of Marketing (3)
MKT 3010

Human Resource Management (3)
MGT 3070

Major Requirements (21 credit hours)
Areas which may be found most easily through study abroad are: Sales/Marketing/Advertising, Business, Foreign Language, Creative Arts, Communications, GC 4510 Special Projects, GC 4900 Selected Topics

Next Steps

For a list of programs that work with the requirements set by the College of Business, please visit https://bit.ly/2OmpMgj. Once you have decided to study abroad, please attend a Business Abroad 101 session hosted on Tuesdays & Wednesdays from 3:30–4:30pm in Sirrine 133.