

Coming Summer 2021...

HISTORY & AMERICAN POPULAR CULTURE

HIST 4000

This course focuses on the history of American popular culture using novels, comic books, music, movies, and television as historical sources. Students will examine the ways in which popular culture has both shaped and been influenced by the politics, economics, and societal concerns of the United States. Themes include colonization, Manifest Destiny, blackface, industrialization, art in the age of mechanical reproduction, America at War, the Cold War, commercialization, and the fracturing of the media landscape.

...Featuring Dr. Joshua Catalano

