

CLEMSON UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE, ARTS AND HUMANITIES

AAH AWARD FOR THE JOHN B. & THELMA A. GENTRY AWARD FOR TEACHING

The Gentry Award Committee requests nominations for the annual award for teaching excellence in the School of Humanities.

The John B. & Thelma A. Gentry Award for Teaching Excellence in the Humanities

Eligibility

All full-time faculty of any rank in the School of Humanities are eligible for the award. The School of Humanities consists of the Departments of Communication Studies, English, History and Geography, Languages, and Philosophy and Religion.

Nomination Procedure

Any Clemson student or faculty member may nominate an eligible candidate.

The faculty member or student wishing to nominate someone should contact the nominee, obtain their permission for the nomination and then write a letter stating the reasons for their nomination. That letter should be sent as a PDF file to Shannon Baldwin, at sbldwn@clemson.edu.

Submission Materials

The nominated faculty member must then submit to the committee the following materials in PDF form:

- A current CV (2-page maximum); a statement of teaching philosophy
- 1-2 supporting letters from faculty colleagues (max 2 pages per letter)
- 1-3 supporting letters from students (max 2 pages per letter)
- Summary forms and written student evaluations from the previous academic year.
- Additional materials such as course syllabi, descriptions of innovative assignments, or other teaching materials may be provided as well (20 pages maximum).

Deadline for all completed nomination packets must be submitted to: Shannon Baldwin, sbldwn@clemson.edu, no later than 4:30 p.m., on Monday March 1, 2021
