MISSION
SCCSA is a premiere career and leadership development summer program. This program is designed to inform, inspire and challenge student participants to consider a career in the agricultural, natural resource and life science industries as well as to be model citizens of leadership and influence for these industries as they embrace an agriculturalist philosophy.

Academic Programs May Include:
- Livestock and Animal Production
- Forestry & Natural Resources
- Plant Sciences

Additional Programming May Include:
- Agribusiness & Policy
- Agricultural Education
- Clemson Admissions & Financial Aid
The South Carolina Commissioner’s School for Agriculture (SCCSA) provides challenging and enriching college-based experiences for a limited number of rising 11th and 12th grade students. Each college-based program provides an academically focused curriculum that integrates subject matter from a variety of related disciplines with the overall theme of agriculture and natural resources.

DATE: Full week in-person, on-campus July 24th – 30th, 2021
If mode of delivery changes to virtual, sessions will still be conducted during this week and would be condensed to one or two days.

ELIGIBILITY
No exceptions are made to these requirements

- Currently a high school student in 10th or 11th grade. Must be on track to enter 11th or 12th grade.
- Home-schooled students are eligible.
- Genuine interest in pursuing a college degree related to agriculture and natural resources.
- Must not have previously attended the South Carolina Commissioner’s School for Agriculture.
- Must submit a completed application form and all related materials by the deadlines.

TUITION COSTS – This pricing is for in-person double occupancy. Please note COVID-19 accommodations and/or virtual programming could affect the costs of the program. Chosen participants will receive final cost information before committing to the program.

| Tuition: South Carolina residents | $425 | Out-of-State residents | $700 |

A non-refundable tuition deposit of $50 is required UPON ACCEPTANCE. This deposit is credited toward total tuition costs. Please do not send money with this application.

Through private funding and donations, the cost to South Carolina students has been kept to a minimum. Each student must provide his or her own spending money as well as transportation to and from Clemson University. All program participants are housed on the Clemson campus and all meals are provided.

Application Deadline: April 16th
the event a student cannot afford these expenses, we encourage students to find local sponsors. Applicants can also submit a letter to the program director requesting funding assistance.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Postmark Deadline
Completed applications are due electronically or postmarked/timestamped by April 16th, 2021 or earlier. The application must be complete and all components must be received, according to the enclosed directions. Applications can be submitted through email or through regular US Postal Service mail, but must be timestamped or postmarked by April 16th, 2021, then received by our office no later than April 23rd, 2021 at 4:00pm to be considered. Applications received with a postmark or timestamp later than April 16th, 2021 will be immediately disqualified.

All components of application must be received by April 23rd for an application to be complete. Please allow your recommenders ample time to complete requirements.

Submitting Application
The applicant should complete applications in entirety and the work submitted should be your own. Applications and related materials can be emailed or submitted online. Related addresses are listed under General Information.

Notification
A selection committee reviews applications and approximately 35-40 students will be chosen to participate with an emphasis placed on students who desire to pursue studies or a career in the agriculture and natural resource industries. Once the selection process is complete, the student can expect to receive a letter announcing the decision by June.

DISCLAIMER
The South Carolina Commissioner’s School for Agriculture is not responsible for lost, incomplete or delayed applications, or those sent to incorrect addresses. The committee cannot respond to requests for advance notification, individual assessments, or appeals.

Once submitted, the contents of this application become property of the SCCSA program and its affiliates. Submissions may be duplicated and replicated at the discretion of the SCCSA Program Director. Applicant gives permissions for multimedia submissions to be used in future advertising for the SCCSA program.
